AN ECHO TO THE EQUITABLE

Receiver Moor Files Suit Against Stockholders
For $15,000

Money Alleged to Have Been Paid Out in Illegal Withdrawals.

Alvan Moor, receiver of the Equitable Building, Loan-Fund and Savings Association, which closed its doors three years ago, today filed suit against twenty-five or more former stockholders to recover $15,000 alleged to have been paid out in withdrawals after January 22, 1902, when the concern went into voluntary liquidation. The amounts claimed range from $6 to $2000. Henry F. Stephens, of Los Angeles, Cal., is a defendant. Write of garnishment and attachment have been issued against the Rushville National Bank, to cover the stock he held in that institution. In the suit against the directors, alleging negligence and calling for $20,000, proceedings have been dismissed against some for the reason that they never fully qualified and acted as directors. Special Judge Brown, of New Castle, has ruled that they be tried separately, thus giving the directors a victory in the first round of the battle.

The defendants in the suit filed today are: Riley Males, Lot D. Guffin, Fannie S. Ayres, Fannie Hugo, Henry Stevens, Henry G. Hackleman, Maude Overton, George Wingenter, Wilhelmine Roest, John Ryan, Henry Schetgen, Allen Daniels, Emily H. Amos, William Morris, Gates Sexton, Clara Harris, Ward Hackleman, Earl Banta, Mrs. Lou Caldwell, Hale Pearsey, Cecil Clark, Alfred Swain, John Plough, Mahala Beher, Mrs. Ephraim Brown, Helen Sexton, Mary Clifford, Lucy Lyons and the Rushville National Bank.

The case has been set for hearing Tuesday, Sept. 4th.

The date of withdrawal and amounts, alleged to have been illegally withdrawn are given in the complaint as follows:

Riley Males, August 22, 1903, $1831.45; Mary Clifford, March 7, 1902, $80; Lot D. Guffin, March 8, 1902, $564.03; Fannie S. Ayres, March 22, 1902, $400; Fannie Hugo, March 1, 1902, $432.89; Henry S. Stevens, April 23, 1902, $1200; Lot D. Guffin, May 2, 1902, $11; Maude Overton, June 15, 1902, $16.50; George Wingenter, June 21, 1902, $472.86; Wilhelmine Roest, June 21, 1902, $6; John Ryan, June 23, 1902, $100; Fannie Ayres, July 7, 1902, $100; Henry Schetgen, July 12, 1902, $135.85; Emily H. Amos, July 25, 1902, $60; John Ryan, July 28, 1902, $143.04; William Morris, August 8, 1902, $50; Gates Sexton, August 12, 1902, $60; Henry S. Stephens, August 21, 1902, $68.13; Ward Hackleman, Sept. 8, 1902, $64.50; Earl Banta, Sept. 8, 1902, $13.48; Mrs. Lou Caldwell, Oct. 11, 1902, $64.50; Henry S. Stephens, November 5, 1902, $252.70; Hale Pearsey, Nov. 23, 1902, $49.09; Gates Sexton, Nov. 29, 1902, $150; Cecil Clark, June 8, 1903, $50; Emily Amos, Jan. 23, 1903, $1300.74; Fannie S. Ayres, March 10, 1903, $20; John Plough, March 17, 1903, $8.66; Mrs. Ephraim Brown, March 17, 1903, $334.44; Helen Sexton, April 2, 1903, $21.74; Emily H. Amos, July 23, 1903, $60; Mrs. Lou Caldwell, July 31, 1903, $64.50; Lucy Lyons, August 24, 1903, $108; August 24, $9.72; Mrs. Lou Caldwell, $64.50; Charles L. Nesbit, Feb. 13, 1904, $3553.01; Mary Clifford, $15; Lot D. Guffin, $1200; Mary Clifford, $13.

The total amount alleged to have been paid out in illegal withdrawals is $12,688.55.

It is also stated that there are a large number of stockholders other than the defendants who were creditors of the Association to the amount of $24,000, at the time it went into voluntary liquidation. It is averred in the complaint that these stockholders are still creditors of the association. Fifteen stockholders other than the defendants have received no payments and have been refused permission to withdraw.

The complaint alleges that the association has been insolvent by $20,000 since January 22, 1902, and states that the plaintiff's demands on the defendants for the money in the various sums named were refused.

The receiver not only asks judgment against the defendants in the various amounts alleged to be due the association, but demands, in addition, interest on the amounts at six per cent.

New Ward School Corner
8th and Jackson Sts.

Work on the new ward school building, to be erected at the corner of Eighth and Jackson streets, is now under way. Contractor Winship staked off the ground this afternoon and by tomorrow the work of excavating for the foundation will begin.

Contractor Winship has signed the contract for the completion of the building and has given bond in the sum of $11,000.

AFFIDAVIT AGAINST WILLIAMS QUASHED

Mayor Hall Holds that New Code Supercedes Old
Law.

A decision of importance was rendered in Mayor Hall's court this morning when the Mayor sustained a motion to quash in the case against Culver Williams, the new proprietor of the Casady saloon, on Second street, charging him with delivering liquor to a minor named James Bell.

The affidavit against Williams was filed by Policeman William Pea. The alleged deliverance, it is charged, occurred on the 16th inst.

When the case came up this morning the question as to whether or not the new criminal code in respect to the sale and deliverance of liquor superceded the Nicholson law arose and the decision in the case, the Mayor says, depended upon that point. Mayor Hall held that the new law superceded the old one in that the word "deliver" did not appear. Decisions have been given both ways on the question, but most judges hold the old law good.

WALLACE CUTS RUSHVILLE OUT

Show Will Merely Pass Through
This City—Goes All
Around Us.

The Shelbyville News erred in its statement that Wallace's circus would exhibit in this city. The Republican has ascertained that the show will not exhibit in this city, at least at this time of this season. On the 24th of July the show will pass through this city from Shelbyville to Connersville, coming in over the Big Four and leaving over the C. H. & D. On the 25th of July, it will exhibit at New Castle.

CAB AND BUGGY IN COLLISION SUNDAY EVE

About 9 o'clock last night as Berland Caldwell, driving a single horse to the cab belonging to the city bus line, was passing along Main street in front of the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Churchill, the harness broke and caused a collision with a carriage occupied by Mrs. S. B. Anderson and children, living south of town. One of the rear wheels of the carriage was demolished but no one was injured.

SEVEN MILES OF TERROR

"Nitro" Was the Sign That Made Farmers Take
to the Woods.

Team Drawing Nitro Glycerine
Wagon Runs Away—Driver's Hair Raising Experience

A dispatch from Knightstown to this morning's Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Charles Bess, a driver for the Hercules Torpedo company, of this city, had a hair-raising experience yesterday that he will not soon forget. He was driving a wagon loaded with 20 quarts of nitroglycerine, which was to be used in shooting a well at Willow Branch, eight miles north of here, and his team took fright at two dogs which were fighting and ran under the horses' heels.

"Bess held on to the lines until he thought the team was going off the end of a bridge into a creek, then jumped off the wagon and started to run from what seemed to be an inevitable explosion. The team kept to the road, however, running at breakneck speed. Once the wagon, in turning a corner, turned over on its side, but again righted itself. The frightened team continued its mad flight along the country road for seven miles, passing through a tickly populated country. Several people ran out to stop them, but as soon as they saw the sign, "Nitroglycerine; Dangerous!" flaring on the side of the wagon they jumped the fences and took to the woods.

Terrified farmers rushed to their telephones and notified neighbors on down the road to run for their lives, as a runaway nitroglycerine wagon was coming, and no one lost any time in doing so. Finally, Wallace Apple stopped the team before he knew what it was hauling. Miraculously the nitroglycerine did not explode. If it had several people would doubtless have been killed. As soon as Bess caught up with the team he mounted the wagon, drove on to his destination and shot the well.

MORE GAMBLING PARAPHANALIA

Is Appropriated by Police Saturday Night in Three Raids

In raids on three different places Saturday night, Policemen Price and Pea, with H. Price and Ray Lakin as deputies, captured about a dray load of gambling paraphernalia which they took to the county jail.

The raids were made between 10:30 and 11:00 o'clock and there happened to be a very few men in the places visited. Several names, however, were secured.

At Thompson's saloon, on Main street, a poker table and "crap" table and numerous poker chips and other articles were taken. The same number and kind of articles were secured at Larkin's saloon on First street. A "crap" table was removed from Ed. Everett's barber shop on First street.

This morning, Deputy Prosecutor Kiplinger filed affidavits against Messrs. Thompson, Larkin and Everetts in Squire Jackson's court, charging them with keeping gaming devices. The defendants gave notice of an intention to take a change of venue to Mayor Hall, and Mr. Kiplinger at once withdrew the suits. It is understood that the next grand jury will look into the matter.

—Miss Lulu Downey, of Detroit, Mich., is here taking care of her mother, Mrs. John Plough, of North Morgan street, who is quite sick. Mrs. Downey's daughter, Miss Isabel, was expected to arrive here Saturday.

ARE WORKING AT IT

Chief Wilkie Warns Rushville
People of Greengoods Men.

"The Boodle Man'll Git You, if you don't Watch out," is the burden of a circular that Chief Wilkie of the Secret Service has sent to many towns and cities in the Middle West. The circular was inspired by complaints that have been received from victims of the "green goods" swindler, who appears to be reaping a harvest in the rural districts of the country. Chief Wilkie's warning exposes the game thoroughly and warns the people against having any dealings with the supposed counterfeiters.

The green goods merchant is a smooth individual and the warning sent out by Chief Wilkie indicates that he is busy at this season of the year. Several local people have recently received propositions from counterfeiters to sell $500 worth of apparently good money for about $100 of Uncle Sam's brand of printing. The letter is accompanied by a bogus newspaper clipping giving a fictitious account of how the greengoods cannot be detected from the original, etc. It is a great temptation to most anyone, but such an investment is always a financial loser and the speculator is very liable to land in jail for "showing the queer."

FALMOUTH WOMAN HAS PASSED AWAY

Mrs. Charles Ross Gives Up the Struggle—Funeral Wednesday.

[Special to the Daily Republican.]

Falmouth, Ind., June 25.—Mrs. Charles Ross, of Falmouth, died at 1:15 o'clock this morning of Bright's disease.

Mrs. Ross was born and spent her girlhood days in Rushville. She was married at that place September, 1881, to Charles Ross. From that time until her death she resided in Falmouth. She was forty-five years old and had she lived until next September, she and her husband would have been married 25 years. She leaves a husband, two sons, William and Edward, and one daughter, Mary, besides two brothers and two sisters, Mrs. Kendall, of Spokane, Mo.; Michael Sweetman, of Kansas City; Will Sweetman, of Chicago, and Miss Mollie Sweetman, who has been with Mrs. Ross during her illness.

Mrs. Ross was a beloved and respected woman, and will be missed by her many friends and neighbors, among whom she has resided for so long a time. The burial will occur Wednesday at Rushville in the Catholic cemetery at 9 o'clock.

TO HAVE LODGE OF COLORED MASONS

Meeting Will be Held Tonight to Effect an Organization.

An effort is being made to organize a lodge of Masons among the colored people of the city, and it is very probable that Rushville will get a lodge.

Rev. Kane, of Seymour, District Grand Master, of the colored Masons, is in the city, and is behind the movement.

A meeting will be held this evening at the home of Prof. Williams for the purpose of considering a plan of organization and enrolling prospective members. Other meetings will be held this week in the colored Odd Fellows hall on Second street.

The new lodge will probably occupy the same rooms over Mulno & Guffin's clothing store with the colored Odd Fellows.

WEDDED AT PHOENIX ARIZ.

Clarence C. Lyon, Editor of Shelbyville Republican
Marries Miss Scott

Bride is an Andersonville Girl—Wedding a Result of College Romance.

A telegram received in Shelbyville Saturday morning, announced the marriage of Clarence C. Lyon, editor of the Shelbyville Republican, to Miss Lula A. Scott, daughter of the late Seneca Scott, of Andersonville. The wedding took place last Wednesday at Phoenix, Arizona, where Miss Scott has been since last September, having gone there with her mother, Mrs. Anna Scott, who was in quest of better health. The last winter Miss Scott spent in teaching school.

The groom was born in Dunkirk, New York, and later moved to Chicago. His father was the oldest engineer on the Erie railway and was killed in one of the wrecks occurred on that road. Mrs. Lyon then moved to Muncie, Ind., where she later married M. W. Lee, of that city. The first newspaper experience of Clarence Lyon began after he was graduated from the Muncie high school. He obtained work as a reporter on the Muncie Star and held the position for two years. He entered Indiana University in the fall of 1900. While there he kept up his newspaper work. For two years he furnished the Daily Telephone of Bloomington with its list of items concerning college affairs.

He was a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity, and early in the college year 1902-3, he announced himself as a candidate for the position of editor of The Daily Student, the college newspaper owned and controlled by the students. A bitter factional fight arose, known as the fight between the "Big Five" and the "Little Three," the organizations composing the "Big Five" opposing the candidacy of Mr. Lyon. In the fight which ensued Mr. Lyon and the three fraternities supporting him effected an alliance with the "barb" or unorganized element and secured the election. In this campaign memorable in the life of Mr. Lyon, Miss Lula Scott, now Mrs. Lyon, played an important part, as it was through her influence that the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, of which she was member, lined up for Mr. Lyon and helped him win. The college "case" then in its infancy, was continued during the six months of the succeeding year, while Mr. Lyon was editor of the Student and became more pronounced after both left college.

Miss Scott was graduated from Indiana in the summer of 1904. Before entering Indiana in 1902, she had spent three years 1899-1902 at the Western college at Oxford, Ohio. Mr. Lyon left college early in the spring of 1904, and took a position on the Indianapolis Star. He continued work on that paper until he resigned to go to Shelbyville last fall.

Mr. Lyon went to Arizona about four weeks ago ostensibly on a visit. That he was to be married was one of the facts that he kept closely guarded from his friends, but some suspicion was expressed at the time he left. He will return to Shelbyville about July 1st. His bride will not accompany him, but will come to Shelbyville as soon as her mother's health will permit.

Both Mr. Lyons and his bride are well known in Rushville. Mr. Lyons has often visited here, and during the eight days he covered the Bankert murder case in this city last August for the Star, he made many friends.

The Republican extends to "Caspar" and his bride congratulations and best wishes.

The funeral of Elder Harvey Wright held at Center Sunday afternoon and conducted by Rev. Robert Thompson, of Greenfield, was an unusually large one. Many Rushville people attended.

Born, Sunday morning, to Mr. and Mrs. Clem Heaston, of North Main street, an eight pound girl.

E. & W. in this city, is vice president of the association.

The body was taken to the home in Richland today. The funeral will be held there tomorrow morning at nine o'clock.

DIVORCE SUIT IS WITHDRAWN

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Joyce Settle Their Differences
Out of Court.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Joyce, principals in a divorce suit filed by the latter in the circuit court last Thursday have settled their differences satisfactorily outside of court and the suit has accordingly been dismissed. Mr. Joyce says that the charges made against him in the complaint were ordered stricken out by Mrs. Joyce before the complaint was filed by the attorney, he says, neglect to look after it.

WOULDN'T COME WITHOUT THEM

Requisition Papers are Required in Peter Ryan's Case.

Saturday's Connersville News says: The local authorities have taken steps to bring Peter Ryan, the "hold-up" man back to this city from Chicago, for trial. It will take some time to see Governor Deneen, of Illinois, and have the papers signed, so that it may be Tuesday before the prisoner may reach Connersville. A special officer has gone after Ryan.

Fire engine No. 2, which has not been used for two years, will be taken to the fire cistern at the corner of Main and Second streets tomorrow morning between 8 and 9 o'clock and tested. One or two streams of water will be thrown.

KILLED SQUIRREL OUT OF SEASON

John Shirk, of Brookville Ran Over Animal With Automobile, East of Town.

The Brookville American says: "John Shirk killed a squirrel out of season the other day, but it would be hard to establish any 'intent' on his part.

"He was coming along the pike about half way between Rushville and Connersville, when a large fox squirrel was seen coming across the road. It did not see or hear the auto until close upon it and then ran right under the wheels and was killed. It is possible that this manner of killing a squirrel is unparalleled."

Light refreshments were served. After July 15th they will be at home to their friends on the Miller farm, southwest of town.

Greenfield Star: Mrs. Nathan Wheeler spent Saturday in Rushville. Mr. Wheeler is now with the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company and will move his family to Rushville soon.

There will be a called meeting of Martha Poe Chapter No. 143, on Wednesday evening the 27th, for the purpose of conferring the degree. All officers and members are urgently requested to attend.

The State fish and game commission is now directing its attention to violators of the law protecting squirrels. Young squirrels are toothsome just now, and there are many hunters who are said to be taking chances of arrest to capture a few. Deputy commissioners are put out over the State and arrests and prosecution will follow violations that come to their notice. They have a habit of seeing a good deal, with the aid of others who are interested. It will not be lawful to shoot squirrels until August 1st, and then the hunter must have a license.

RUSHVILLE, IND., JUNE 25, 1906.

A MIXED SITUATION

Marion County's State Senatorial Contest Attracting Attention.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 25.—The last local Republican convention of the year will be held next Saturday, when the county legislative ticket will be nominated. There are a large number of candidates for representative.
Chief interest centers, however, in the race between William Bosson, Linton B. Cox and Joseph Minturn for senator. Bosson is regarded as the Fairbanks-Hemenway candidate. Cox has the backing of the Beveridge wing.
The line-up is somewhat peculiar.
Mayor Bookwalter is said to be for Bosson, although he helped Senator Beveridge's friends beat him last winter for district chairman. In this instance it looks as if the Beveridge-Bookwalter-Overstreet combination, which was talked of last winter, has been dissolved. Cox has a very large following. "Baron" Rothschild, collector of customs, and Captain H. S.
New are regarded as his campaign managers. Cox was one of Bookwal-ter's first lieutenants until he was turned down for the city attorney. The race between Bosson and Cox promises to be very exciting. Minturn is not a dangerous quantity. There has been some talk of Lynn B. Hay, former deputy city attorney, as a compromise candidate, but it is not likely that his name will be presented.

Chairman O'Brien has promised some of the Democratic leaders that he will call a meeting of the state committee and the nominees of the state convention within the next few days to discuss and outline a plan of campaign. It was the understanding that a meeting would be held within a fortnight after the state convention and the delay cannot be understood.
As matters stand now nearly all the leaders seem to be in the dark as to what is to be done. They say that the party has been drifting aimlessly long enough, and that the time for a getting together has about arrived if anything is to be accomplished this year. The lack of ginger in getting the campaign under way is causing many of the leaders to fret and to say pointed things, and they are getting ready to insist on a change in the program if something is not done very shortly. Even those who doubt the party's chance to elect its ticket this year are very desirous of making a fine organization which will cut the Republican majority down to such proportions that the Democracy will go into the fight in 1908 with a substantial hope of victory.

A movement is under way at Shirley and other points to raise a fund sufficient to make a thorough test of whether a new reservoir of natural gas can be found below the one which is now practically exhausted. A. T.
Hert, who has a big croesiting plant at Shirley, says the manufacturers there may soon start the drilling of a well to a depth of between 3,000 and 4,000 feet to settle the question.
Many men who have capital invested in the gas belt have always believed that gas in paying quantities exists at a depth of from 2,000 to 4,000 feet, but experts have not been confident. However, there is a sentiment throughout the gas belt favorable to thorough tests, and it would not be surprising if enough money should be subscribed to drill two or three deep holes. There are only a few points in the belt now where there is sufficient gas for domestic purposes, and hardly any manufacturers are depending on it.

WARD H. WATSON

A Strong Candidate for Appellate Judge From Southern Indiana.

Ward H. Watson of Charleston, Republican nominee for appellate judge from the First or Southern district, is one of the well-known and capable lawyers of southern Indiana. He was born in Harrison county forty-five years ago and has been identified with the rapid upbuilding of that portion of the state. As a farmer boy he laid the foundation for his career as an attorney and business man. After graduating from college he located at Jeffersonville, but shortly afterward removed to Charlestown, where he has since resided. He has been constantly in the practice of law in Indiana for the last twenty-two years, during which he has made a reputation in his profession which has stamped him as strong timber for a place on the bench of the appellate court.

WARD H. WATSON.

Mr. Watson has held but one political office. In 1894 he was elected to the state senate from the district composed of Clark and Jefferson counties by an unusual majority, attesting his popularity at home. As a member of the senate for four years he made a reputation that greatly added to his strength. He was regarded as one of the most influential members of that legislative body.

Beside being recognized as having much legal ability to fit him for the place of appellate judge, Mr. Watson is known as a man of excellent character—such a man as the Republican party is glad to honor with a position of high honor and trust. Beside his large acquaintance in the southern part of the state, Mr. Watson is favorably known all over Indiana, and it is predicted he will receive a splendid endorsement at the polls.

LEANDER J. MONKS

A Strong Judge of the Supreme Court, Candidate for Re-Election.

Judge Leander J. Monks of the supreme court, was born in 1843, in Randolph county, Ind., where he still has his home. He has been on the bench continuously for the last twenty-eight years, having been elected circuit judge in 1878 and re-elected in 1884 and 1890, and advanced to the supreme bench in 1894 and re-elected in 1900. Judge Monks served his first

LEANDER J. MONKS.

two terms as judge of the Twenty-fifth judicial circuit, consisting of Randolph and Delaware counties. But before the beginning of the third term the circuit was divided, and in 1890 he was elected judge of a circuit consisting of Randolph county alone.

He was educated in the common schools and at the Indiana State university, and began the practice of law in 1866. In 1878 he was first elected circuit judge. While his bearing is dignified, he is as approachable when holding the position of chief justice as he may be presumed to have been when he was a young lawyer seeking clients. As a member of the supreme court he is noted for the clearness and brevity of his opinions, usually contenting himself with stating the conclusion reached on a controverted point with the reasons and authorities which support his conclusion, without entering into an extended discussion of the subject. Since he became a member of the supreme court Judge Monks has prepared the opinions of the court in a number of cases which attracted much attention, and in every respect he is regarded as a valuable state official, and a man whom the people will be glad to re-elect to the high and important position which he so honorably fills.

ED V. FITZPATRICK

The Hustling Republican Nominee for Clerk of Supreme Court.

Ed V. Fitzpatrick of Portland, Jay county, candidate for clerk of the supreme court, is probably best known in every county of the state as "the man from Jay." Few citizens of Indiana have a wider personal acquaintance over the whole state than has Mr. Fitzpatrick. He is a native of Wells county, born in 1866, the son of Dr. J. D. Fitzpatrick of Vera Cruz.
Mr. Fitzpatrick removed from Wells to Jay county in 1887, settling at Dun-klirk, where he engaged for several years both in school teaching and mercantile lines. As a school teacher he was a success, even as he was as a merchant. He was recognized as a keen-sighted business man, his foresight, judgment, honesty and sociability impressing whomsoever came in contact with him.

He has served as clerk of the circuit court of his county, being elected by the largest majority ever given before or since to a candidate for that office in Jay county, and his services were so eminently satisfactory that he was renominated without opposition and again elected by an overwhelming majority when the county was conceded to hang slightly Democratic.

Mr. Fitzpatrick was married to

WHAT IT HAS DONE

Work of the 59th Congress Has Been of Prime Importance.

NO MARKED DIVISION

Party Lines Even on Some of the Most Important Measures Have Been But Lightly Drawn.

Important Measures Extending Federal Regulation and Control Open New Field of Legislation.

Washington, June 25.—Important measures extending federal regulation and control have been enacted at the first session of the fifty-ninth congress now rapidly drawing to a close. The railroad rate and the meat inspection bills will soon become laws, and before adjournment of congress both houses will have passed pure food bills, which though dissimilar in terms, are both based on the same principle of federal control. It is the present intention to try and adjust these differences before adjournment.

There has been no marked division on party lines in effecting the above results, the differences being only as to ways and means rather than as to policy.

Besides branching off into this new field of legislative endeavor the present session of congress has made itself important in other ways. It has added one and perhaps two new states to the Union and by so doing has disposed of four territories. Great results to the people are expected from the removal of the tax on denatured alcohol. By a deft turn of legislative points of view the questions which have perplexed congress for some time regarding the Panama canal have been settled.

Congress has not dwelt with the foreign situation to any extent. An act making a much needed re-organization of the consular service was passed.
Nothing was done in the Santo Domingo controversy and the legislation affecting our colonial possessions was meager and unimportant, although tarriff revision for the Philippines received the attention and approval of the house, and an act was passed revising the tariff collected by the Philippine government. A coinage act for the islands also was passed.

Much Tariff Talk.

But congress talked about our own tariff law. It broke the record for years. Thousands and hundreds of thousands more than have been uttered at any other one session of congress were compiled in the congressional records. Not only on the floors of the two houses has the word record been heavy, but the publications resulting from committee investigations of subjects are larger and more numerous than at any previous session.
A large number of bills were introduced in the two houses. The calendar records that the number has reached nearly 20,000, five hundred more than were introduced during the entire three sessions of the last congress.

Before discussing the number of acts passed it is interesting to note that with all the strenuous exertions of an appropriation committee in the house with a new chairman it has been impossible to hold the appropriations down to much less than $900,000,000, although "economy" was the watchword from the start.

Reducing Expenses.

One of the important features of the session has been the careful scrutiny with which the demands of the different government departments have been received by the house appropriations committee. The hearings accorded to government officials asking for money to run their departments and bureaus have been more exhaustive than ever before. The result has been the enactment of restraining legislation on nearly every appropriation bill which it is intended will have a beneficial effect hereafter. Much of this proposed legislation was stricken out in the house on "points of order," but some of the more important provisions became law.

First in this class is undoubtedly that requiring the heads of all executive departments to apportion the appropriations they receive into equal parts to avoid deficiencies. This is to be done under penalty. The prompt turning into the treasury of all moneys collected by heads of departments as government revenue is another safeguard against extravagance. A strict accounting is hereafter to be received from all United States court clerks. A revelation that one such clerk had received emoluments amounting to $336 in one day brought about this provision. Although there has been an effort to prevent the enlargement of what is known as the "permanent annual appropriations," this character of expense has increased during the session to the extent of nearly $5,000,000, making a total permanent annual appropriation of more than $140,000,000.

In Behalf of Labor.

Organized labor has succeeded in its requests of the present session of congress to the extent of securing the enactment of what is known as the "employers' liability bill." This enactment will make it possible for an employee to secure damages for his injuries, notwithstanding his own negligence may have been in part responsible for that injury.

Another bill which has received the approval of the senate and will doubtless become a law before the end of the session is that limiting the hours of continuous service of railway train-men to sixteen consecutive hours' work, to be followed by ten hours' rest.
The much agitated eight-hour day bill received a favorable vote from the labor committee of the house, but too late to secure action at the hands of congress. The anti-injunction bill was postponed in committee until the next session of congress upon a direct vote on that proposition.

Some Incidental Features.

One of the novel features of the law making was the enactment of a measure to preserve the scenic beauty of Niagara Falls. Congress authorized the construction of the "biggest battleship afloat." Hazing at the naval academy was given a further legislative rebuke. A law was passed which will result in appropriate markings being made over the graves of Confederate veterans of the army and navy who died in northern prisons during the civil war. The wearing of the insignia of the Grand Army of the Republic or other soldier organizations by others than members of the said organizations was made a misdemeanor or with appropriate punishment. The president was authorized to take the necessary steps to preserve American "antiquities" by creating government reservations in locations where such antiquities exist.

Alaska was given the right to send a delegate to congress. Although the ship subsidy measure did not become a law, twenty-four acts relative to shipping became laws. These were all minor in character and inaugurated no new policy. Liberality toward the Indians characterized the several enactments on that subject. An important measure is that which prescribes the exact procedure which must be followed by witnesses to secure immunity from prosecution later, to be followed in cases where the government undertakes to gain information to be used later in criminal procedure.
President Roosevelt was given $25,000 to pay traveling expenses of himself and invited guests. The private pension legislation of the session was heavy and many hundred such acts will be signed before the end comes.

Louisville's Close Sunday.

Louisville, Ky., June 25.—Additional and what were considered by a majority of citizens unnecessarily heavy weights were piled on Louisville's "lid" yesterday as the result of a policy inaugurated by Magistrate Frank J. Hoffman. Magistrate Hoffman's interpretation of the Sunday closing laws led to the closing of cigar stands, soda fountains, fruit stands and even of butcher shops and groceries, which have heretofore kept open Sunday mornings for the benefit of citizens having no iceboxes.

Leaned Over the Boat's Side.

Red Wing, Minn., June 25.—While Grace and Edith Nettum, sisters, aged fourteen and twelve years, were enjoying a boat ride on the Mississippi river Sunday they leaned over the side of the boat, lost their balance and fell into the river and were drowned.

the Yukon, July 14th.

Miss Carrie Merryweather, who is at home from a year spent in missionary work among the colored people of Nashville, Tenn., will go from here to Cleveland, O., for the summer.

Henry Stager, who was the victim of a terrible accident Friday, is doing remarkably well. While playing with some children near his home Friday morning they were crossing and re-crossing the track, when the Big Four south-bound passenger train ran over Henry, crushing the toes of his left foot, grinding the right leg off between the knee and ankle, and otherwise bruising him. The local Drs.
Sipe, Cregor and Rank, Dr. Sexton and Green, of Rushville, and Dr. Barrett were called, and the right leg and the toes of the left foot were amputated. The boy, who is six years old, has a remarkable constitution, and talks intelligently of the accident. He seems to have stumbled, and realized he could not escape, so he says he lay perfectly still like the little boy in a story his mother had read to him.

The boy of the story had saved his sister and was caught on the track before he could escape. He lay flat, and the train passed over him without injuring him. Such presence of mind is unusual in a child. The train crew had noticed the children on the track, had whistled repeatedly, and the train was going by its own momentum. The trainmen were taking every precaution, thinking each time the child crossed would certainly be the last attempt. At times the boy suffers intensely, but the physicians give much encouragement of his recovery.

Miss Mabelle Gear and Dr. Earl Gear, of Marion, came Friday and Chas. H. Gear and H. M. Gear came Sunday on account of the accident to their nephew.

SUIT TO RECOVER

State's Action Against Former Auditor Henderson
In Court.

ARGUMENT HAS BEGUN

States Demurrer to Answer of Defendant's Attorneys Is the Point Under Present Consideration.

Defendant Maintains That Insurance Fees Were Part of His Legiti-mate Compensation.

Indianapolis, June 25.—This morning argument was begun in superior court No. 3 in the case of the State of Indiana against ex-Auditor of State J. O. Henderson. The suit is for the recovery of something more than $100,000 which Henderson is alleged to have unlawfully collected and retained during his two terms as auditor of state.

Attorney General Charles W. Miller, for the state, demurred to the answer of John W. Kern, W. H. H. Miller and C. C. Shirley, counsel for Henderson, in which it is set up that the insurance fees constituting the money held by Henderson were part of his legitimate compensation in office. It is on this demurrer that the argument is being heard.

MINING SITUATION

Leaders Express Hope of Lasting Peace in Bituminous Field.

Indianapolis, June 25.—The hope is expressed at the national headquarters of the miners here that the agreements that have been signed recently will prove the basis of lasting peace in the bituminous fields. The leaders of the big organization indicate very plainly that they are not anxious to risk its future on another strike or suspension for higher wages. The much-talked-of million-dollar defense fund is said to be a myth now and to have dwindled to the point where it is not in the neighborhood of that amount. The extraordinary assessment of 50 cents a week on all miners employed is now coming in and is expected to furnish the nucleus for another fund.

According to advices received at the headquarters, peace will soon be made in Michigan. President Mitchell has gone to Saginaw to attend the conferences between the Michigan miners and operators. The latter, according to the statement of one of the officials of the national organization, would sign the 1903 scale if the Michigan miners would reduce their initiation fee to a point where the number of miners could be easily increased. The Michigan miners have been charging the high fee of $50 for initiation to their locals. The Michigan operators declared that to be exorbitant. The miners then reduced it to $25, but an agreement has not been reached.

An Unusual Family Record.

Evansville, Ind., June 25.—The jury returned a verdict finding Mrs. Minerva Williams guilty in the first degree of the murder of James Leigh at Boonville last January, and fixed her punishment at life imprisonment.
Her husband, Jonah Williams, was tried at the same time as Mrs. Williams by Judge Rasch, who has taken the case under advisement. Mrs. Williams was tried as an accessory before the fact in the murder of James Leigh, for the shooting of whom Wesley Williams, her son, was a week ago sentenced to life imprisonment. Mrs.
Williams is fifty years of age and the mother of six children. Of these children four are under sentence for criminal acts. Wesley Williams will serve a life term for killing Leigh. Andrew Williams, another son, was on Wednesday convicted of shooting Town Marshal Williams of Boonville and was fined and sentenced to five months in the county jail. This occurred two hours after the killing of Leigh, when the marshal and a posse came to the house to arrest Wesley Williams. The two younger Williams boys are in jail for stealing.

Charged With Brother's Murder.

Tell City, Ind., June 25.—Jacob Schwartz, who is charged with the murder of his brother, will be put on trial next Wednesday. A few weeks ago Jacob Schwartz and his brother George engaged in a quarrel, in which Jacob drew his gun and shot his brother four times. George Schwartz on his deathbed made a statement forgiving his brother.

Going After Gambling Boat.

Laporte, Ind., June 25.—The report is current here but cannot be verified, that Governor Hanly has privately communicated with the prosecuting attorneys of Lake, Porter and Laporte counties to employ such measures as will insure the driving of the City of Traverse, the floating gambling palace, from Indiana waters.

Shot Wife and Himself.

Boonville, Ind., June 25.—W. N.
Harding, a civil war veteran, aged sixty years, living a half mile from Tennyson, this county, shot and killed his wife and then killed himself Sunday morning. Jealousy prompted the deed.

GOREMYKIN WEARYING

Witte's Successor Finds the Same Rocky Road as His Predecessor.

St. Petersburg, June 25.—The Conservative Centrist party in the council of the empire, organized recently with the purpose of attempting to supplant the Goremykin ministry by a cabinet chosen from the Octoberists, the Democratic Reform and the Constitutional Democratic parties, have joined in the chorus demanding the resignation of the cabinet. M. Yermoloff, formerly minister of agriculture, gave out an interview saying the present situation is impossible and that it is evident if the actual ministry can do nothing for the pacification of the country it should be replaced by a cabinet in which the more moderate elements of parliament are given places. The situation, M. Yermoloff added, is so tense that any attempt of the administration to array itself in open opposition to parliament can result only in calamity and disaster. Though M. Yer-moloff and his party, in the program published today, adhere to nominal opposition to the general principle of expropriation, they concede the necessity of satisfying the land hunger of the peasantry and adopt the idea of the creation of local commissions for the solution of the problem in accordance with local needs, thereby endorsing the principle on which all factions in the lower house—the Constitutional Democrats, the Group of Toll, the Poles and the Conservatives—are tending to concentrate.

There are indications that Premier Goremykin is wearying of his position, but the retirement of the cabinet is apparently not a matter of the immediate future; and reports published abroad that the ministers all wish to resign but that the emperor cannot decide to accept their resignations are untrue. Nothing is further from the thought of the majority of the ministers than voluntary abandonment of their portfolios.

Severe Punishment Inflicted.

Cairo, June 25.—Three hundred and fifty Sudanese were killed and 100 captured by the punitive expedition sent from El Obeid to relieve the garrison at Talodi, which was attacked by native tribesmen early in June, resulting in the loss of forty Egyptians killed. No losses were sustained by the expedition.

Three Warsaw Policemen Slain.

Warsaw, June 25.—In the suburb of Wola Sunday afternoon a band of terrorists shot and killed two policemen and wounded another policeman and a gendarme who were sitting drinking in a restaurant. An hour later the same band shot and killed a police sergeant.

The Longworths Dine With Kaiser.

Kiel, June 25.—Emperor William entertained Mr. and Mrs. Longworth at dinner last night on board the royal yacht Hamburg. Princess Elitel was the hostess. The emperor was jolly and complimentary to America and Americans.

NEARING A CLOSE PEOPLES EXCHANGE

Congress Promises to Get Through With Business
This Week.

THE PROGRAM OUTLINED

Supply Bills Will Be Harried Out of the Way For the Tug of War To Come at the Close.

All Signs Point to a Satisfactory Conclusion of Rate Bill and Pure Food Bill.

Washington, June 25.—Senator Hale, who in the absence of Senator Allison is acting as chairman of the senate committee on appropriations, expresses confidence in the final adjourning of congress before the close of the present week. His program will be to urge the consideration of appropriation bills and conference reports to the exclusion of practically all other matters, and with the supply bills finally passed, there is no measure unless it be the railroad rate bill than can hold congress together. The Maine senator is of the opinion that the work can all be concluded by Friday, but says that in no event will it go beyond Saturday.

The only two appropriation bills which have not passed the senate are the general deficiency bill and the omnibus public building bill, but the sundry civil, the naval and the agricultural bill are still in conference. Of these none is expected to require much time except the agricultural bill, to which is attached the meat inspection provision, and it is generally conceded that in case of necessity that measure could be disposed of in short order, as it has already been sufficiently discussed to satisfy most senators. It is not anticipated that the deficiency bill will arouse debate, but there will be a general scramble to secure recognition on the building bill. For this reason it will be held in reserve until the last minute.

As to the rate bill, no one doubts that it will get through, but no one is satisfied as to just how the commodity amendment prohibiting common carriers from transporting their own products, will come out. If Senator Tillman adheres to his determination to insist upon the retention of the words "common carriers" instead of substituting the word "railroads," as is now proposed, there will be inevitable delay. There will also be further discussion of the resolution calling on the attorney general for a statement of suits under the anti-trust laws, and Senator La Follette has given notice of his intention to prosecute his effort to secure the adoption of his resolution providing for the withdrawal of coal and oil lands from entry. Night sessions are probable toward the last of the week.

The Proceedings in the House.

Every effort is to be made to finish the business of the session in the house of representatives this week.
Contrary to the usual practice the adjourning resolution is not to be introduced until the legislative bill is in such shape that it cannot be blocked by the single-handed opposition of any member of either body, and particularly the senate.

The last of the appropriation bills, the general deficiency, was reported to the house today and passed. This bill carries $10,245,509, and before it becomes a law this amount will be increased very largely, as it is planned to add to it in conference a certain percentage of the appropriations to be authorized in the omnibus public building bill. This addition by the conference will be authorized by a joint resolution, as has been done in the past. After the deficiency bill is out of the way the immigration bill is to be considered under a special rule which will limit the discussion to a few hours. Strong endeavors are to be made to amend this bill regarding the educational test and the increased head tax. The public building bill will follow the immigration bill.

Conference reports on pending appropriation bills and other measures including pure food bills, will be brought in at all times and considered without delay.

The requirements of the work at present will make it possible, unless some unforeseen delay occurs, to finish by Friday. The final decision to complete the passage of the pure food bill, by reconciling the senate and house bills, which are radically different, presents one possibility of delay which cannot well be calculated, but the leaders say this measure must become a law before adjournment.
